

INSTRUCTOR-LED COURSE

Learn essentials skills necessary to succeed in global logistics management

Companies count on logistics experts—one of the fastest-growing professions in the world—to get their products to customers on time and on budget. By earning the APICS Certified in Logistics, Transportation and Distribution (CLTD) designation, you learn how to implement innovative logistics strategies and concepts to reduce costs, increase customer satisfaction and perform at a higher level. You will also demonstrate your commitment to advancing both your career and your company's operations.

APICS Brandywine Valley Chapter is offering an APICS CLTD Learning System course that will expand your global logistics knowledge and prepare you for the APICS CLTD exam.

The APICS CLTD Learning System allows you to streamline your studies while accelerating your learning.
